

Magdalene

Saturday, May 2, 2009

Highlights:

- Matinee performance at the Ragtown Gospel Theater (Post, TX) located on the family ranch in the shadow of the vast Caprock escarpment.
- This $2 million facility takes audiences to a first-century Jerusalem plaza.
- Enjoy a full hour of vibrant and uplifting southern gospel music featuring Chip Polk or other talented singers. The music will be consistently entertaining and professionally presented followed by a powerful performance of Magdalene.
- Between Nazareth and Capernaum on the Sea of Galilee, lay the village of Magdala. The whole population of these three villages would travel the 70 miles to Jerusalem for the Passover. Relationships between the children of these nearby communities were kindled, and rekindled every year. One such relationship would stir the imagination of Christians for generations on end. It was a relationship between a young Nazarene and Mary of Magdala. This is the story of Magdalene.
