

Christmas on the Pecos

(Carlsbad, NM)

December 1 - 2, 2010

(2 days – 1 night)

Voted by American Bus Association as “a top 100 attraction in North America” for 14 consecutive years.

Highlights Include:

Christmas on the Pecos: On a large boat, float down the calm Pecos River as it snakes its way through town. The lights are colorful and bright as the holiday spirit shines through with shimmers of colors from the illuminated backyards of homes nearby.

Carlsbad Caverns: The largest underground chamber in the United States. Visitors totaling approximately 700,000 tour the cave each year. We will descend and ascend by elevator to the "Big Room" which is about the size of 14 football fields.

Living Desert Zoo and Gardens: In the Ocotillo Hills overlooking Carlsbad is a unique park displaying hundreds of species of cacti and native animals. See birds, wolves, deer, mountain lions, javelinas, badgers, elk, lizards, prairie dogs, buffalo, roadrunners (the New Mexico state bird that can kill a rattlesnake), and much more. You will see many interesting special exhibits on minerals, archaeology, insects, mammals, reptiles, history and natural resources.
