

Hill Country Christmas

December 10 - 11, 2010

(2 days - 1 night)

Our Hill Country Christmas will depart Abilene routing through Comanche and continue to Marble Falls, named for the Colorado River waterfalls over marble outcroppings. At this time of the year the town and neighboring towns are alive with the Christmas Spirit and decorations. What a sight to see!

Highlights Include:

- Marble Falls Walkway of Lights, over 1 million twinkling lights on 130 sculptures reflect on the sparkling waters of beautiful Lake Marble Falls. The pole-tree boasts over 17,000 multi-colored lights and a lighted tunnel stands with over 12,000 clear bulbs.
- Bethlehem on Main Street in Burnet comes alive as spectators visit the village. Dressed in period clothing, members of First Baptist Church re-create the Living Nativity Scene and the town of Bethlehem.
- Johnson City will be fully adorned for the season. The Blanco County Courthouse glows with a stunning, twinkling 100,000 lights while the Pedernales Electric Co-op features over 1 million lights.
- Driving tour of Marble Falls, Horseshoe Bay and Kingsland
- Patty Hundley, former Abilenian, will join us as a local tour guide for a portion of our Christmas Tour to the beautiful Hill Country of Texas.
