

San Antonio Fiesta

Includes River Parade
April 19 - 21, 2010
(3 days - 2 nights)

Highlights:

- Texas Cavaliers River Parade (reserved seating)
Professionally decorated barges become floating "islands", bearing thousands of twinkling lights, festive bands, and colorfully costumed participants.
- Cruise the San Antonio River-one of the highlights of visiting the Alamo City will be your boat ride as it winds its way in the heart of the city.
- SAS Shoemakers Factory- purchase shoes, bags and more at discounted prices. You will enjoy looking at the antique and classic automobiles as well as other items on display.
- Free time in downtown San Antonio-You may choose to visit the Alamo, Buckhorn Hall of Horns, or Ripley's Believe it or Not (requires admission fee). Perhaps you wish to browse in the Rivercenter Mall with more than 125 stores or stroll the River Walk with its lush green foliage.
- Mission San Jose, known as the "Queen of the Missions" was founded in 1720.
- El Mercado, Historic Market Square is San Antonio's most unique shopping and dining experience.
- King William Historic District, the most elegant residential district in San Antonio during the 1800's.
