

Charleston, Savannah and Myrtle Beach

April 5 - 16, 2011

(12 days - 11 nights)

Tue, April 5

Texarkana, TX

Today will be an exciting day with everyone getting acquainted with fellow travelers as we begin our spring tour to the Carolinas with other sightseeing stops en route. Making our way across Texas we will overnight in Texarkana.

Wed, April 6

Nashville, TN

We will route across Arkansas, a diverse state of mountains, delta, and prairie before crossing the Mighty Mississippi River in Memphis. This afternoon's scenic drive will take us eastward to Nashville, the "Country Music Capital" and our overnight destination.

Thu, April 7

Asheville, NC

We will bypass the Great Smoky Mountains National Park as we enter North Carolina and arrive in Asheville. Tonight, enjoy dinner and entertainment at The Fiddlin' Pig.

Fri, April 8

Myrtle Beach, SC

We route through Charlotte, the largest city in North Carolina where we stop at the Billy Graham Library. Our visit will allow you to discover the life and legacy of America's Pastor. Designed to reflect Billy Graham's journey from a humble farm boy to an international ambassador of God's love, the barn-shaped building is situated on 20 acres, only miles from where Billy Graham grew up. This afternoon we continue to Myrtle Beach, SC, an entertainment capital located on the Atlantic Ocean.

Sat, April 9

Myrtle Beach, SC

Begin the day with a tour of Brookgreen Gardens.

Highlights Include:

- North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia
- Myrtle Beach, SC
- Savannah, GA
- Charleston, SC
- Fort Sumter Cruise
- Jekyll Island Club Hotel lunch
- Jekyll Island Tram Tour
- Brookgreen Gardens
- Heyward Washington House
- Jimmie Rodgers Museum
- Billy Graham Library
- Lunch at Lady and Sons
- Mrs. Wilkes Boarding House Supper
- National Infantry Museum

With more than 2,000 species of plants, it is the floral jewel of the state. Once a thriving rice plantation, many of the oak trees are more than 250 years old. Enjoy a leisurely afternoon with local sightseeing and shopping but get ready for a night of entertainment at one of the local theatres.

Sun, April 10

Charleston, SC

Upon arrival in Charleston we see that preservation is a way of life in this 300-year-old city renowned for its splendid architecture. Have free time for browsing at the historic city market where vendors sell high-quality paintings, pottery, Charleston's famous sweetgrass baskets and more. Board a boat for a tour of Fort Sumter where the first shot of the Civil War was fired on April 12, 1861.

Mon, April 11

Savannah, GA

Begin our day with a city tour of Charleston to include the Citadel, Heyward-Washington House and St Michael's Church. This afternoon we continue to Savannah and enjoy supper at Mrs. Wilkes Boarding House, serving great food since 1943.

Tue, April 12

Savannah, GA

Savannah boasts one of the nation's largest urban National Historic Districts in the country. A real "Old South" experience comes to life on the cobblestone paved streets beneath the moss-draped oaks to be seen on city tour. After lunch at Paula Deen's Lady and Sons, enjoy a free afternoon from our downtown hotel.

Wed, April 13

Albany, GA

Continuing to the south we tour one of Georgia's "golden isles", Jekyll Island, an exclusive winter retreat for the wealthiest families of America in the late 1800's. Our narrated tram tour will give us a better appreciation of the island before our lunch at Jekyll Island Club Hotel.

Thu, April 14

Meridian, MS

We continue to Columbus, the 3rd largest city in Georgia. The newly-opened National Infantry Museum is located just outside Fort Benning and tells the heroic story of everyday Infantrymen through an enviable collection of more than 30,000 artifacts. Galleries trace Infantry history from before the Revolutionary War to action today in Iraq and Afghanistan.

Fri, April 15

Shreveport, LA

Before leaving Meridian we pay a visit to the Jimmie Rodgers Museum. Known as the "Father of Country Music", he was born in Meridian in 1897.

Sat, April 16

Return home

As we board our motorcoach this morning we realize our tour is rapidly coming to a close but we will take with us great memories of our tour of the South and the fun shared with fellow travelers. We will route through Dallas and Fort Worth as we head homeward to West Texas.
