

Over the River Summer Getaway in OKC

June 5 - 8, 2019
(4 days - 3 nights)

explore the vast collection of more than 400 instruments and memorabilia associated with the banjo. You may feel the need to tap your toe as we are treated to a musical performance. If you still want more, join us for an evening of baseball as we cheer on the OK Dodgers vs. Sacramento River Cats. What a spectacular day!

Oklahoma City

All aboard our Bilbrey Tours motorcoach as we set our sights just over the river, the Red River. As we begin our exploration, we meet our fellow travelers in anticipation of becoming friends by the end of the tour. By late afternoon we arrive in Oklahoma City, our home for the next three nights. Settle into OKC, the only capitol in the world surrounded by working oil wells. One is even named Petunia #1, because it was drilled in the middle of a flower bed. After dinner we will relax as we cruise on the Bricktown Canal.

Oklahoma City

After a good night's rest, we are joined by our step-on guide as we learn about Oklahoma's rich heritage from the Land Run to Automobile Alley. Next up, we visit the US Olympic and Paralympic Training Site in the Boathouse District before stopping for lunch at the Museum of Art café before enjoying the magnificent collection of Dale Chihuly, including the 55-foot blown glass tower. The American Banjo Museum awaits as we to explore Affair of the Heart - a 30-year tradition in Oklahoma. This one-of-a-kind shopping event allows you to browse hundreds of retailers from across the national selling everything from jewelry and handbags to crafts, clothing and food. You will quickly discover why Affair of the Heart has been voted the #1 contemporary craft show in Sunshine Artist Magazine. Your other option for the afternoon will be 45th Infantry Division Museum. There you will see one of the nation's largest collections of military firearms, Pulitzer Prize winning cartoonist Bill Mauldin's cartoon collection, a 15-acre outdoor park featuring tanks, artillery, personnel carriers, and the Thunderbird Monument and the world's largest collection of items once owned by Adolf Hitler. This evening we will enjoy dinner in OKC's historic stockyards.

Saturday, June 8

Return Home

You are in for a morning treat at the world famous Express Clydesdales. There we tour their beautiful and historical Clydesdale Barn and see their majestic horses. These gentle giants typically stand around 18 to 19 hands high and weigh nearly a ton. Today these Clydesdales travel across North America as ambassadors and help raise millions of dollars for Children's Miracle Network Hospitals and other charities. Time now to head back to the Lone Star State. Sit back, relax and recall the amazing sights, sounds, and history we have rediscovered as we visited our neighbors to the North.
