Fri, Mar 25

Shreveport, LA

Today will be an exciting day with everyone getting acquainted with fellow travelers as we begin our spring tour to Charleston and Savannah with other sightseeing stops en route. Making our way across Texas we will overnight in Shreveport.

Sat, Mar 26

Tuscaloosa, AL

We will route across Louisiana, a diverse state of known for its Creole and Cajun cultures, before crossing the Mighty Mississippi River in Vicksburg. This afternoon's scenic drive will take us eastward to Tuscaloosa, home to the University of Alabama's Crimson Tide and our overnight destination.

Sun, Mar 27

Atlanta, GA

We continue east into Georgia whose terrain spans coastal beaches, farmland and mountains before entering the capital city of Atlanta. Lunch will be at the Historic Mary Mac's Tea Room. This 1945-era institution draws locals and tourists alike for some Southern comfort food. This afternoon quench your thirst with a sampling of over 100 different beverages from around the world at the World of Coca-Cola.

Mon, Mar 28

Charleston, SC

Upon arrival in Charleston we see that preservation is a way of life in this 300-year-old city renowned for its splendid architecture. Have free time for browsing at the historic city market where vendors sell high-quality paintings, pottery, Charleston's famous sweetgrass baskets and more. Settle in as this our home for the next two nights.

Tue, Mar 29

Charleston, SC

Begin our day with a city tour of Charleston to include the Citadel, Heyward-Washington House and St Michael's Church. Enjoy lunch and some free time in historic Charleston before making our way to the Charleston Tea Garden., the only tea garden in North America where you can see hundreds of thousands of tea bushes stretching out acre after acre. We will explore the gardens via trolley before venturing in to the tea factory.

Wed, Mar 30

Savannah, GA

This morning we make our way to Beaufort, SC, located on Port Royal Island. With an opportunity to share your musical talents, we visit Kazoobie Kazoo Factory and enjoy a tranquil carriage ride through this charming coastal city. This afternoon we continue to Savannah, GA. Enjoy dinner at Paula Deen's world-renowned Lady and Son's

National Historic Districts in the country. A real “Old South” experience comes to life on the cobblestone paved streets beneath the moss-draped oaks to be seen on city tour. After lunch you will enjoy a free afternoon from our downtown hotel.

Fri, Apr 1

Albany, GA

Continuing to the south we tour one of Georgia’s “golden isles”, Jekyll Island, an exclusive winter retreat for the wealthiest families of America in the late 1800’s. Our narrated tram tour will give us a better appreciation of the island before our lunch at Jekyll Island Club Hotel.

Sat, Apr 2

Meridian, MS

We continue to Columbus, the 3rd largest city in Georgia. The National Infantry Museum is located just outside Fort Benning and tells the heroic story of everyday Infantrymen through an enviable collection of more than 30,000 artifacts from before the Revolutionary War to action today in Iraq and Afghanistan. Next we visit everyone’s new favorite hometown, Wetumpka, AL. Made famous by HGTV’s Home Town Take Over. Fall in love with America’s “can do” spirit and what a town rallying together can accomplish.

Sun, Apr 3

Shreveport, LA

After leaving Meridian we pay a visit Laurel, MS. Just like Chip and JoAnna Gaines put Waco on the map, Ben & Erin Napier have done the same for Laurel, MS. Visit the Lauren Rogers Museum of Art, enjoy a historic homes tour, browse the “must haves” of the Laurel Mercantile, and take a peek in Ben’s Scotsman General Store and Woodshop. We spend our final night back in the Bayou State
