This afternoon we board our motorcoach in Abilene and route to the DFW area to overnight in anticipation for tomorrow's flight to Boston, Massachusetts.

Sun, June 21

Portland

We begin our great adventure along the rugged charm of Atlantic Coastal Maine. Known for its dramatic rocky shores, quaint seaside towns, and of course, fresh lobster, this journey promises lighthouses, maritime history, coastal cuisine, and natural splendor at every turn. Upon landing in Boston, we make our way to Portland, ME where we will stay the next two nights.

Mon, June 22

Portland

Today we start our day at the iconic Portland Head Lighthouse nestled within Fort Williams Park, a picturesque spot that has guided ships safely along Maine's rugged coast for over two centuries. We will then head to the vibrant Old Port Wharf, a lively waterfront district steeped in fishing history. Here, we will learn of the hardworking fishermen and industries that have shaped Portland's identity. Have your cameras ready for you are guaranteed to snap the perfect photo of a moose this afternoon! Our day will culminate with a serene evening cruise after dinner. Relax on the Casco Bay, taking in panoramic views of the city skyline, islands, and lighthouses — a truly unforgettable way to experience Portland by twilight.

Tue, June 23

Bar Harbor

Leaving Portland behind, we make our way north to Lewiston, ME. Here we will visit the stunning

Freeport

Today we soak in some of the most dramatic natural scenery in the East as we travel through the Acadia National Park. Here we explore its stunning coastal landscapes and rocky shorelines and get a glimpse of Cadillac Mountain, the highest point on the U.S. Atlantic coast. We will certainly have a great appreciation of the beauty that makes Acadia a national treasure. After lunch, we will head along the picturesque Maine coast to Fort Knox, a historic 19th-century granite fort perched on the Penobscot River. Explore the impressive fortifications and learn about its role in protecting the region’s waterways. We then visit Penobscot Narrows Bridge and Observatory, one of the tallest public bridge observatories in the world. An elevator ride up to the observatory provides you with panoramic views of the river, the fort, and the surrounding landscape—a truly unique vantage point to appreciate Maine’s coastal charm. Afterward we arrive in Freeport, where we will be for two nights.

Fri, June 26

Freeport

Freeport is best known as the home of L.L. Bean, the iconic outdoor gear retailer that’s open 24/7, 365 days a year. The flagship store is a must-see for outdoor enthusiasts and shoppers alike. Beyond shopping, Freeport charms visitors with its quaint village atmosphere, featuring a collection of boutique shops and artisanal eateries. Freeport perfectly blends New England small-town charm with a lively retail scene—making it a perfect stop on any Maine coastal adventure.
