

Autumn Trails in the Texas Hill Country

October 27 - 30, 2026
(4 days - 3 nights)

Highlights:

- 3 nights in Historic Fredericksburg—settled in 1846 and offers a unique blend of German culture and Texas heart in the Hill Country.
- Longneck Manor—an unforgettable, up-close encounter with giraffes and rhinos while supporting conservation efforts. Have your cameras ready for a selfie
- Lyndon B. Johnson National Historical Visitor Center (Johnson City) —Tells the story of our 36th president beginning with his ancestors until his final resting place on his beloved LBJ Ranch. Tour the boyhood home and drive through the ranch
- Luckenbach TX General Store, Bar and Dancehall has been making music, memories and friends since 1849. A place to kickback, relax and get away from the hustle and bustle of everyday life. Enjoy a tour and learn how it became the music mecca for country music.
- National Museum of Pacific War tells the human story of World War II in the Pacific, spanning 6 acres. Includes the Admiral Nimitz Gallery which explores the life and career of Fredericksburg native Fleet Admiral Chester W. Nimitz.
- Museum of Western Art (Kerrville) dedicated to the preservation and promotion of Western Heritage.
- James Avery Craftsman Center (Kerrville) Finely crafted jewelry since 1954, the craftsman center showcases James Avery's original workbenches, hand tools and designs over the decades.
- Downtown Fredericksburg— discover one-of-a-kind gifts, art and Texas Hill Country treasures at their unique boutiques.
