

Arizona Spring Training

Including Texas Rangers Spring Training

March 2 - 9, 2027

(8 days - 7 nights)

Tues, March 2

Las Cruces, NM

Batter up! Today we head west to sunny Arizona to take in America's favorite pastime—baseball! Each spring, the Arizona comes alive as it hosts the Cactus League, where 15 Major League Baseball teams gear up for the new season. Experience the excitement of Spring Training as you watch your favorite teams up-close. Between games, we will explore the best of the Phoenix metropolitan area's attractions.

Wed, March 3

Old Town Scottsdale

Today we make our way into the beautiful Arizona desert, where we settle into our home for the next four nights in the heart of Old Town Scottsdale. This charming and vibrant district is the perfect home base for our Southwestern spring adventure. Tonight we will enjoy dinner and spectacular views at a local restaurant.

Thurs, March 4

Old Town Scottsdale

We are off to Surprise, AZ, the Spring Training home of our very own Texas Rangers! Experience the excitement behind the scenes as you watch the team during their morning workouts and practice sessions. One of the highlights of Spring Training is the opportunity to get up close to the players as they move between the practice fields—perfect for collecting autographs, snapping photos, and creating unforgettable memories with your favorite Rangers. Following lunch, we head into the ballpark to cheer on the Texas Rangers as they take the field.

Fri, March 5

Old Town Scottsdale

Little did you know but nestled away on the outskirts is one of Arizona's best-kept secrets - Queen Creek Olive Mill. This charming family-owned operation is Arizona's only working olive farm and mill. We will enjoy Olive Oil 101 as we learn about this desert oasis and all things olive! After lunch we make our way to an afternoon Spring Training game at another one of the 10 intimate Cactus League ballparks.

Sat, March 6

Old Town Scottsdale

This morning, we explore one of Phoenix's true treasures with a visit to the world-renowned Musical Instrument Museum; home to an extraordinary collection of instruments from around the globe. The afternoon is yours to enjoy at your own pace. Relax at the hotel, browse the unique shops and galleries of charming Old Town Scottsdale, or choose to attend an optional Cactus League Spring Training game at nearby Scottsdale Stadium. Tonight we venture to the legendary Organ Stop Pizza, where the incredible sounds of one of the world's largest and most impressive Wurlitzer theater organs entertains you while you dine. More music awaits us as we enjoy an evening performance by The Duttons, the talented Branson musical family, who spend their winters entertaining in Arizona. Their family-friendly show, filled with exceptional musicianship, and comedy, brings all the charm and excitement of a Branson production to the Arizona desert.

Sun, March 7

Tucson

Today we journey south to Tucson to experience another side of Arizona's rich heritage and culture. We will have the opportunity to visit the world-renowned Pima Air & Space Museum. Home to one of the largest collections of aircraft in the world, the museum features more than 400 beautifully restored airplanes and spacecraft spanning the history of aviation—from early flight to modern military jets and space exploration. We will continue to experience Arizona's rich heritage and culture in Tucson.

Mon, March 8

El Paso

Step back in time as we travel to the legendary frontier town of Tombstone, Arizona. Our visit includes the iconic O.K. Corral, the site of the legendary 1881 gunfight that forever cemented Tombstone's place in American history. Learn about colorful frontier figures like Wyatt Earp, Virgil Earp, Morgan Earp, and Doc Holliday. Tombstone offers an authentic glimpse into Arizona's rugged frontier past. Afterwards we make our way back into the Lone Star State for the night.

Sun, March 9
